Kentucky Florists' Association, Inc

FLORISTS' EDUCATION PROGRAM OF KENTUCKY (FEPK)

ROGER VANATTER & FEPK SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

DEADLINE MAY 1, 2020

Each year the Kentucky Florists' Association host the Floral Education Program of Kentucky (FEPK) for beginners and for individuals seeking the Kentucky Master Florist (KMF) certification.

The FEPK Beginner's Course is for any florist with three (3) years or less experience in the industry and serves as the first step towards earning the Kentucky Master Florist certification. This course is a day-long experience that serves as an introduction into floral design including principles and elements of design, funeral design, and wedding design. This is an excellent course for anyone beginning their journey in the industry. This program will be held on Sunday, May 31, 2020 at Refinery North in Jeffersonville, IN.

The Kentucky Master Florist (KMF) certification is a five day-long program that teaches the ins and outs of the floral industry with a focus on hands-on design classes in funeral, wedding, and everyday designs. The class will also review care and handling of plants, cut flowers, and arrangements, marketing and customer relations, and business operations. A certification test will end the program to determine if the Kentucky Master Florist certification is earned. This program will be held June 7 - 12, 2020 at the Super 8 by Wyndham in Grayson, KY.

Scholarships are available for each program. Please complete the application below and return it to Mark Bradford, KMF | 3135 ST HYW 1496 | Grayson, KY 41143 or visit www.kyflorists.com/FEPK and complete an online application. Completed applications are to be postmarked or submitted no later than 11:59PM on May 1, 2020 - late entries will not be considered. Applicants must be a current KFA member or employed at a current KFA member shop. Details on becoming a KFA member can be found at www.kyflorists.com/membership. Scholarships are non-transferable. Winners will be notified by May 13, 2020.

For more information, please contact Mark Bradford KMF, KFA Education Director at 606.831.2027.
