Kentucky Florists' Association, Inc

FLORISTS' EDUCATION PROGRAM OF KENTUCKY (FEPK)

ROGER VANATTER & FEPK SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

DEADLINE MAY 1, 2019

Each year the Kentucky Florists' Association host the Floral Education Program of Kentucky (FEPK) for beginners and for individuals seeking the Kentucky Master Florist (KMF) certification.

The FEPK Beginner's Course is for any florist with three (3) years or less experience in the industry and serves as the first step towards earning the Kentucky Master Florist certification. This course is a day-long experience that serves as an introduction into floral design including principles and elements of design, funeral design, and wedding design. This is an excellent course for anyone beginning their journey in the industry. This program will be held on June 8, 2019 at Georgetown College in Georgetown, KY.

The Kentucky Master Florist (KMF) certification is a five day-long program that teaches the ins and outs of the floral industry with a focus on hands-on design classes in funeral, wedding, and everyday designs. The class will also review care and handling of plants, cut flowers, and arrangements, marketing and customer relations, and business operations. A certification test will end the program to determine if the Kentucky Master Florist certification is earned. This mprogram will be held June 9 - 13, 2019 at Georgetown College in Georgetown, KY.

Scholarships are available for each program. Please complere the application below and return it to Mark Bradford, KMF | 3135 ST HYW 1496 | Grayson, KY 41143 or visist www.kyflorists.com/FEPK and complete an application there.
